Scheduled social media August 17 to 19 2015.xlsx

Good morning,

I wanted to send an updated schedule of posts we have planned for the next couple days since it's been a busy weekend.

These posts have been approved through the EOC review process.

We are not planning any messages not related to the Gold King Mine response for the next few days.

Since I'm working on webmail, attached the spreadsheet in case the table I have pasted below doesn't display correctly.

We will work with the EOC to get some more messages approved and ready to go on things like the FAQs page and other new content.

Jess
